

Welcome to Citigroup Global Executive Banking!

Citigroup Global Executive Banking program is designed to meet the needs of internationally assigned employees. We think you will be pleased with the features, flexibility and services provided through this program to facilitate your move overseas.

Convenient, reliable banking services. With a Global Executive Banking account, you'll find it easy to access your money and your account during your stay overseas. The Global Executive Banking account is a US dollar account that is especially designed to meet the needs of employees moving overseas.

Two FREE international funds transfers per month. Your account will provide you with great flexibility in transferring funds around the world. You can initiate a wire transfer by fax or online. Or you can tell us to wire a certain amount of money overseas on pre-determined days each month.

Personalized service. With Global Executive Banking, you'll receive access to a team of personal bankers, dedicated to handling your financial needs, from account opening to bill paying and more. A representative will always be available to assist you by telephone from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday to Friday EST. So you'll be assured of appropriate, responsive service regardless of your time zone or location.

Preferential foreign exchange rates. Global Executive Banking customers receive preferred rates on foreign currency transfers from their account to their accounts overseas when using our CitiFax service.

Opening an account overseas. Depending on your destination, we may also be able to help you open a Citibank account in your destination country, helping to make your transition overseas as easy as possible.

Award-winning online banking. We also provide Citibank's award-winning internet banking service to access your account and continue to pay your US bills, anywhere in the world. You'll also receive an ATM card.
